WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN ?

Risk Indicator

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

The risk indicator assumes you keep the Product until maturity end of the recommended holding period.

The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this Product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the Product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

This Product is classified in category 2 because of its management strategy which consists of investing in the international bond market and in particular in perpetual fixed coupon bonds.

Significant risk(s) for the Product not taken into account in this indicator include the following:

- Credit risk: Investors are exposed to the risk of defaults on the bonds included in the portfolio. This risk may affect up to 100% of the portfolio. The materialisation of this risk may lead to a fall in the Product's net asset value.
- Counterparty risk: The Product may be exposed to the counterparty risk from the use of financial forwards entered into in the OTC market with a credit institution. Therefore, the Product is exposed to the risk of default from these financial institutions on payment obligations related to such operations.
- Liquidity risk: Liquidity risk exists when particular investments are difficult to purchase or sell. This can reduce the Product's returns because the Product may be unable to transact at advantageous times or prices. This can be the result of shocks of unprecedented intensity and severity such as but not limited to pandemics and natural disasters.

For more information on risks, please refer to the prospectus of the Product.
