MONTHLY COMMENT

Market Commentary

The month of December ended a challenging year shaped by increased political and economic fear: Brexit, Italy, US trade war with China, falling oil prices. Investors' perception has gradually deteriorated and a risk-off sentiment finally materialized at the end of the year. Over the year, the spreads of subordinated debt have widened by more than 200 bps year-to-date: from 104 bps to 227 bps.

We believe the decline in financial valuations is not justified given the strong fundamentals. The latter have not stopped improving since the crisis (average capital level significantly increased to 14.70% in September 2018, four times as much as in 2007) and we have seen a number of favourable developments throughout the year confirming the continuous normalisation of European bank balance sheets: ongoing improvement in credit metrics alongside a steady reduction in stocks of non-performing bank loans (average NPL ratio down to 3.4% in September 2018), strong quarterly results, sustained momentum in credit rating upgrades, and stress tests passed with success on historically severe assumptions.

Only Italian banks remain under close surveillance. As expected, at the end of December, the ECB decided to place Banca Carige under supervision and temporary administrators were appointed. The bank had to carry out a capital increase or find a buyer before the end of 2018.

We believe this dichotomy between fundamentals and valuations offers very attractive entry points: the underlying credit quality has not changed, and prices should recover as soon as the

Finally, on the regulatory side, the latest updates in the Banking Package (CRD5 / CRR2 / BRRD2 / SRMR) brought more visibility while confirming the potential performance of our Legacy strategies. The implementation of MREL continues to provide an attractive set of investment opportunities within the asset class and we see the regulatory catalyst as relevant as ever. Regardless of difficult market conditions, 2018 saw a number of calls of non-eligible debt instruments continuously throughout the year: Barclays, RBS, Nordea, AXA, BPCE and tentatively Santander, Aegon, etc.

Fund Activity

In December, we increased our exposure to the ringfenced entity within RBS retail bank. The bond, having been issued in 1985, does not comply with the new resolution criteria and offers a yield close to 13% for a rating above BBB- at two agencies.

Despite the weak liquidity, we captured an arbitrage opportunity between similar instruments issued by a German cooperative and sold short-dated, low-yielding positions to strengthen the discounted bond bucket to 32.5% (from 27% previously). The fixed-to-fixed bonds bucket has also been strengthened above 40%: the risk of an early call for these positions has decreased and they continue to provide an attractive and low-beta source of liquidity in these challenging market conditions.
